Hi Zak,

Sorry for the delay in response. It's been a packed week. It would be great to set up a zoom call to discuss comments. I'm free after 2pm today or 2pm on Monday.

Best,

Dan

Subject: Open Space Graphics Updates

Hey Daniel and Jose,

We had an internal meeting to review the open space graphics after all of the conversations we have had as of late, we have a few suggestions. See the attached PDF's with comments. Let me know if you have any questions on these.

Happy to schedule a check in next week to go over the comments. I also have some context that may help to understand the comments, but it would be best to discuss them over a video conference call.

Thanks,
Zak
