Hi Becky,

Dana indicated that for Cityview For Cityview, there was a sign on site, and the ad was posted on the city's environmental review website where the EIR is posted. The ad was also posted in the Mercury News (print and online). However, she suggested coordinating with ARG on ideas on how to better advertise rehab and relocation.

Thanks,

Shannon –

Does the City have a standard list of online sources for public noticing? This came up in our comments to be more specific and were hoping there was standard language that could be incorporated. If it colors your response, this would be for relocation and salvage mitigation measures.

Thanks.
