Hi there,

Sorry I couldn't attend the meeting this morning. I had a check-in with ESA earlier today, and yes, my understanding is that Fehr & Peers (transportation consultant) is actively working on the LTA. However, there is concern that the LTA won't be completed in time for planned public circulation of the EIR.

ESA let me know that there is a transportation meeting this week to discuss the scope of the LTA, and Google has mentioned hiring additional consultants to expedite completion of the LTA.

Ramses, I suggest coordinating with Manjit (cc'd on this email) if you are not already attending the transportation meeting this week. Also, feel free to give me a call if you still have questions about inclusion of the LTA analysis in the EIR.

Thank you,

Shannon Hill, Planner

Hi Shannon - I think that we were hoping that you could check in with Google to make sure their team is actively working on the LTA (not waiting for us for anything). When Robert gets back, we will check in with DOT and DPW to make sure that we're on the same page about the scope and timeline of the LTA as it relates to the EIR.

Ramses – please jump in if I'm missing something!
