Hi James and Shannon,

I don't anticipate going into detail about the Draft EIR during the PC study session. It is not anticipated to be a hearing on the contents of the EIR. However, we will mention that the Draft EIR is circulating, show where it can be found, and re-iterate the due date for comments. There will be questions and comments that we will have to answer, but I don't want to have the PC go deep into the weeds when the goal is to give them an overview of the project.

We should not be providing anything for this Monday's meeting. We have ADEIR 4 review, which is a priority over everything else. We can finalize the PC study session agenda after the ADEIR 4 review and roundtable next week and the following week. It is not crucial since the PC study session is still some time out.

Thanks,

David Keyon

It seems these questions could be answered at the meeting instead of creating a PowerPoint, but what do I know?

Yes, Lori's back, and I have a feeling we will be getting a lot more of these last minute requests. We have not discussed this at all, since it wasn't on the radar yet, and we need to focus on reviewing the EIR.

David, do you have an answer for this based on your discussions with Manford?

Thanks,
Shannon

Hi Shannon,

Originally we were planning on discussing this later, but since Lori is back this request came up for our Monday All Hands meeting with Kim. My question for you and David is, do we plan to share the summary of the EIR at the PC Study session? I want to make sure we leave or remove it per your direction.

Thanks,
James Han

Hi James,

When do you need our feedback? I'll be buried with ADEIR4 the next couple days and into the weekend. Can this wait until Monday?

Thanks!
