Dear Planning Commissioners –

This fall, the City is in an important phase of project and plan review and community engagement for the Diridon Station Area. I am writing to share information to prepare you for the upcoming Planning Commission Study Sessions.

The City has also posted several draft documents and is hosting a series of public meetings and engagement activities this fall to share information and get community feedback. Click on the following links for more info:

- Google's Downtown West project
- Draft Amended DSAP
- Draft Diridon Affordable Housing Implementation Plan

On Monday, November 16, 1:00-5:00 p.m., a City Council Study Session will be held on Diridon Station Area planning efforts and the Google Downtown West Mixed-Use Development Project. The Council memorandum, staff presentation and letters from the public can be found here. We encourage you to view the meeting or recording.

Because of the volume of information to share, we have decided to conduct two Planning Commission Study Sessions (noted below) and to start the sessions at 4:30. We want to be sure there is ample time for you to ask questions and provide comments, as well as ensure adequate time for public comment.

- December 2, 4:30p.m. – Draft Amended Diridon Station Area Plan
- December 9, 4:30p.m. – Google Downtown West Mixed-Use Development Project

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Robert Manford, Deputy Director, at robert.manford@sanjoseca.gov or me.

Best regards,
Rosalynn
