Robert: Please see the attached and let us know if you would like us to make revisions. You are also free to make your own revisions as you see fit; if you do, please send us the revised version.

I am sending both PowerPoint and PDF versions so that you can review whichever is easier for you.

Thank you.

Something user-friendly with less technical jargon that describes the process and the product along the following lines:

Intro (purpose of the EIR, type of EIR, NOP, circulation period, etc)

Contents/Impact areas evaluated (including Cumuative impacts, Alternatives, Growth inducement, etc)

Conclusions/Residual Impacts, etc

Responses to Comments,

Next steps

Any other pertinent information that you would like to include. Overall, something straightforward understandable to the layman, but informative as well.

Sounds good?

Robert

Yes, we can do that. How many pages would you like the summary to be? Are you looking for something that lifts text directly from the EIR, or something that is more “user-friendly” (i.e., perhaps uses somewhat less technical language and jargon)?

Hello Karl:

How are you doing? I was wondering whether you (ESA) has prepared a quick overview/summary of the EIR contents and conclusions of the analysis in a power-point presentation. If not, as we proceed with several presentations and study sessions, such a document will be very handy. Can you please provide us with such a document? It would be good to get it to Rosalynn and I, if possible.

Thanks

Robert
