Hello Community Members,

This fall and particularly during December, you have the chance to shape one of the most extraordinary planning efforts happening in any U.S. city. We are in an important phase of project and plan review and community engagement for the Diridon Station Area.

Several draft documents have been released this fall for Google's Downtown West Mixed-Use

Development Project and the Diridon Station Area Plan (DSAP). Concurrent with reviewing Google's 80-acre development proposal, City staff initiated a process to amend the DSAP, adopted by City Council in 2014. Staff have also released the draft Diridon Affordable Housing Implementation Plan that addresses City Council's direction to achieve 25% affordability of all housing built in the Diridon Station Area.

Your input on these draft documents is highly valued and shapes our future. Join one or more of these events to participate and give feedback:

- Dec. 2 Planning Commission Study Session on Diridon Station Area Plan - 4:30-6:00 p.m.
Details: <https://www.diridonsj.org/general-events/pc-dec2020>
- Dec. 3 Community Meeting on Diridon Station Area Plan - 6:30-8:00 p.m. There will be live interpretation and a breakout room in Spanish. Details:

- Dec. 9 Planning Commission Study Session on Downtown West Project - 4:30-6:00 p.m.
Details: <https://www.diridonsj.org/general-events/pc-dec2020-j88ly>
- Dec. 10 Diridon Experience Workshop - 6:00-7:00 p.m. Hosted by San Jose Jazz with City of San José support. In this virtual workshop you'll use household objects to tap into memories and creativity to design public spaces that are welcoming and accessible.
Details: <https://www.diridonsj.org/general-events/experience-workshop>
- Take the Survey: Downtown Transportation Plan. San José, we'd like to hear from you! Please take this survey on your experiences traveling to, from, and within Downtown San José. This will inform the Downtown Transportation Plan. Take the survey here.
