Hi Elisabeth, thanks for reaching out. I'll ask some folks and see who is right. Be back in touch after the weekend!

As part of the City's emergency preparedness for power outages and non-man-made disasters, we are putting together contacts for area companies. Mostly those contacts would be facilities managers, heads of operations, or emergency prep people. I am pretty sure neither of you is the right contact!

Can you provide a name, cell phone and email address that we can add to the City's emergency business contacts database?

Thanks.
