Thank you! That's great, Shannon, thanks for tracking this down.

Good morning Michael,

Thanks for your patience. The "checklist" referred to in Policy 6-34 is an old document and no longer available online, but I was able to hunt it down with the help of development review staff that have been with the City for a long time (see attached). This is the first time I have seen this checklist as well, so thanks for requesting it!

Note that it is the same information that is provided in Section B (Bird-Safe Design Guidance) but includes additional detail for compliance.

Thanks,

Good morning Shannon,

I was reviewing Policy 6-34 Bird-Safe Design Guidance and within the text of the policy a "bird-friendly building design checklist" is referenced for applicants seeking a development permit in the riparian zone. I did a search of the city's website and had no luck in locating this document. May I ask you for the link to this checklist so I may download a copy for our files?

Thank you,
