[External Email]

Thank you for organizing this, Kevin. I have suggested to the team that we can start the meeting with the presentation from the City and then we will have information to share as needed.

Would you please add the following to the invitation:

Thank you everyone for being as flexible as possible to enable this meeting to occur. I realize that some of you have prior commitments or are dealing with more pressing needs related to COVID-19. Please respond with your availability so I can ensure that we have essential representation to make the meeting effective.

The purpose of the meeting is to begin understanding more of the technical details of the two projects in terms of their geographical and design interfaces and potential conflicts. Please prepare for everyone's review exhibits that will allow us to better understand what is being conceptualized or designed at this time.

Bill and Liz, please feel free to provide us with any direction on what types of exhibits or materials will be helpful in the meeting through video screen sharing.

Kevin O'Connor is inviting you to a scheduled Zoom meeting.
