Hi Joe,

I apologize for the slow response. Given the COVID-19 pandemic, the City is currently considering the schedule and engagement impacts to all Diridon related projects, including the Downtown West Mixed-Use Development proposal and the corresponding environmental analyses. Any updates on timelines and public engagement approaches will be posted to the Diridon project website in the coming days. When we get a better understanding of project timeline impacts, staff will post that information to www.diridonsj.org and www.sanjoseca.gov/GoogleProject.

Thank you,

Good Morning Shannon,

I am interested in the reviewing the draft EIR for Google's Downtown Development. According to the estimated timeline on the City of San Jose's "Google Project" webpage the EIR is scheduled to post in Spring, 2020.

Is this still the timeframe? Or have things been delayed due to Covid-19?

Cheers,

-Joe
