Subject: AGENDA/Google-related Civic Facilities Priorities

Here is the agenda for our 2:30 meeting this afternoon regarding civic facilities priorities for the Diridon Station Area.

Google-related Civic Facilities Priorities Meeting

February 3, 2:30-3:30, Room 1734

Attendees:

- Diridon Core team
- Sr./Exec staff from Parks, Recreation and Neighborhood Services; Library; Office of Cultural Affairs; Office of Economic Development
- Open to other staff as needed

Purpose:

- hear each other's ideas related to civic, cultural, and recreational spaces and programming for the Diridon Station Area (DSA)
- identify complementary/overlapping ideas and any potential conflicts
- goal is to get to 'one voice' on the City's priorities for public facilities in the DSA to inform the development review and DA negotiations

Agenda

1. Introductions (Kim – 5 min)
 - a. Overview of meeting purpose, agenda, and format
2. Community Center idea (PRNS staff – 5 min)
 - a. Ideal mix of services/program, space needs
 - b. Potential locations
3. Multi-use Library idea (Jill – 5 min)
 - a. Ideal mix of services/program, space needs
 - b. Potential locations
4. Workforce Development and Local Hiring (Monique – 5 min)
 - a. Ideal mix of services/program, space needs
 - b. Potential locations
5. Cultural Spaces (Kerry and Michael – 5 min)
 - a. Ideal mix of services/program, space needs
 - b. Potential locations
6. Discussion
 - a. Customers:
 - i. which of these ideas are most critical for serving the current/future DSA residents?
 - ii. which of these ideas would draw out and serve Google employees?
 - iii. which of these would attract and serve the broader City and visitors ("destination making" attractions)
 - b. Synergies: what combination of elements could exist in a single facility?
 - c. Place-making: where should these facilities and elements be located?
 - d. Priorities: considering everything, what spaces do we see as "critical" to prioritize in the negotiation vs. "important" vs. "nice to have"
