Yes – thank you for updating us. Definitely agree with your assessment that we do need to understand the plan and operation impact to your team before this moves formally.

In Community Spirit,

Subject: Diridon Area Outreach

Jon / Neil: FYI – I am increasingly concerned about Kim’s “adoption” of Zac for engagement on the Diridon and Google Projects (see screen shot below). She requested his support from mid-March through July while Lori Severino goes on maternity leave. We have agreed to give him this opportunity in theory, but I requested that Lori and Zac provide to me a summary of the work plan and, in Zac’s case, an understanding of staffing needs for PRNS while he is supporting OED. At this time none of this staffing planning has been completed. Despite this, Kim seems to be incorporating Zac into more Google work. I am concerned....Just sharing with both of you. Please feel free to a) provide me some guidance; and b) mention to Kim that I still need Zac to resolve how our work will get done.
