Great! I wasn't sure you were on it and I wasn't going to demand that you work past five again tonight!

I wasn't going to, but I have a 5 PM meeting today with Tim and Rosalynn to recap last night's meeting. I'll ask then.

Hey Nicolle,

Were we planning a formal written response to the DANG letter. DOT is asking if we need to coordinate on our responses if we are. It was my impression that the meeting we had with them was our "formal" response to the letter.

I let Eric know I am happy to connect with him about any responses they are drafting that relate to open space.

Thanks,
Zak

Thanks Zak.

So you have the sense that DANG is expecting written responses to anything form PRNS?

If so, we can try to coordinate.

If not and/or if you haven't committed to responding to anything in writing, maybe you don't need to and we don't need to coordinate.

Either way is fine with us.

Hey Eric,

I don't think we have formally responded to these questions yet. We tried to set up a meeting with DANG that got waylay-ed by the Park Advocates group.

We hosted a meeting with the Advocates, where DANG members were present and we represented where we are at in the planning effort and addressed some of these concepts. Again though, nothing as formal as a written response has been put together.

Hey Zak,

Did PRNS still need to get back to DANG on any of the questions that they asked of you in the attached letter?

We (DOT) still needs to follow up on a few items. Tim Room says that Planning has responded to all of the Planning-related questions. IF you have some loose ends, I thought that maybe our two departments could send a joint e-mail?

We don't necessarily need to coordinate, but it would be good to know whether there are any outstanding questions for your department.

Hope your day is going well,

Eric

Hi Tim and Jose,

Like PCBE, we met with DANG recently to discuss the issues that they raised in this letter and other things.

We didn't have time to answer all of their questions during our meeting, so we said we would follow up with them to answer the questions that we didn't get to.

Did you make a similar commitment to DANG? It would probably be best if we could coordinate on a response and answer all of their questions in a single City response, but that may be too much to coordinate.

In either case, we'd like to know what your approach is/was.

Thanks very much,
Eric
