Subject: Length of Proposed Trail Development

Hey Bethany,

Does your team have an idea of what the length of the segments of trail that are being proposed with the development are? I know we have acreage, but it would help us to understand the actual distance in miles being constructed, as we typically generate cost estimates for trail construction based on the cost per mile developed. I have a rough idea using the mapping provided, but if you have exact numbers, that would be great.

Thanks,
Zak
