Dear SJDRA Community, we would like to remind you the upcoming meeting tomorrow by the City of San Jose to engage with members of the San Jose Downtown Residents Association to discuss transportation in the Diridon station area. Their complete letter is pasted below. The following City staff will attend:

- Jessica Zenk, Deputy Director of Transportation
- Ramses Madou, Division Manager
- Wilson Tam, Transportation Planning Manager
- Eric Eidlin, Station Planning Manager
- Emily Breslin, Climate Smart Transportation Planner

For those of you who are interested in transportation issues, please take this opportunity to express your views and visions, and be engaged. This is the first pilot meeting for downtown residents. There will be future on-going opportunities to stay engaged.

Dear San Jose Downtown Residents Association members,

City staff would like to engage with you in discussions about transportation in the Diridon station area! This meeting will serve as an extension of the upcoming 6/17 Station Area Advisory Group (SAAG) meeting; while that 6/17 SAAG meeting will provide general updates on the Diridon Station Area Plan (DSAP), this meeting with you will focus exclusively on transportation elements in the DSAP.

SJDRA Meeting Date: Friday, June 12, 2020, 6:00-7:30 PM

Meeting Format: Virtual meeting on Zoom, <https://zoom.us/j/98681684134>

Meeting Purpose and Objectives:

- Discussions on the proposed transportation projects, programs, and policies in the Diridon Station Area Plan.
- Introduction of the upcoming Downtown Transportation Plan.

Please respond to this invitation with a "Yes" or a "No" indicating your interest in attending or not. If you have any questions, please contact Elizabeth Chien-Hale, Co-President, at chienhale@gmail.com or Wilson Tam from Department of Transportation at wilson.tam@sanjoseca.gov. Thank you!
