Subject: Diridon Station Area - input requested

Hello Community Members,

As discussed at the Station Area Advisory Group (SAAG) meeting on August 22, the City is preparing to process an application from Google for a mixed-use development project in the Diridon Station Area. Concurrently, the City is going to work on amendments to the Diridon Station Area Plan (adopted in 2014), in order to adapt to current conditions and align with other adopted and ongoing plans, such as the Diridon Integrated Station Concept Plans. The City also plans to prepare area-wide studies related to parking, affordable housing, and infrastructure financing.

We have posted a questionnaire on the website at www.diridonsj.org/questionnaire to gather feedback on the upcoming public engagement processes associated with these projects. This input will help inform development of the community engagement strategy. The questionnaire will be open until September 25. Please share your preferences for how you want to be involved!

Upcoming Public Engagement Opportunities:

City staff will have a table at the following community events to share information about what is happening in the Diridon Station Area (info available here: <https://www.diridonsj.org/diridon-station-area-plan-google-project>).
