James,

I have no issues now that I see the point of tomorrow's discussion.

Apologies for jumping the gun.

Hi Bill,

As you may know, I have sent a new invitation for tomorrow's meeting with Google due to last minute decisions. Regarding the infrastructure plan, I have been coordinating with Florin Lapustea, Julie Benabente, and Rey Sadorra and they will be sharing their high-level comments since they have been ready for some time; if you defer, please let me know.

Best Regards,

James Han

James

Some confusion about tomorrow. Is the entire session cancelled? Jessica thinks Infrastructure is still on. We have an internal meeting on Friday re that topic. Rather have our house in order before we dance with Google again in this

Thanks
