Hello Mike,

Thanks for your interest in the project. There is not a landscape architect for the project yet that I know of. The project is slated for City Planning Commission and City Council consideration in spring of this year. Assuming the project is approved, the project manager (James Han, whom is cc'd on this email) may have more information for you after that time.

Best regards,

Shannon,

Hope all is well considering.

Trying to find out the landscape architect on subject project.

Pursuing hardscape opportunities.

Thank you for your help.
