Thanks, Lori, Jose, and all who participated.

That last comment I take as a good challenge—as we move our recommendations forward, to clearly and repeatedly show how the project will benefit current residents and explain how we’ve maximized this.

Here are the notes from this event – listing the questions and comments received from attendees. It was a great opportunity to connect with residents, including many that were new to the process. Thanks to Jose for leading the presentation and the other staff that participated!
