Hello SAAG,

We have completed two of the three SAAG small group meetings, and have about 10 spots left for the Monday, December 2 meeting at 6:00-8:00 PM at the Bascom Community Center. We are planning to serve Rosie's pizza and salad for dinner. We will discuss the materials posted at www.diridonsj.org/saag, Google's application posted here:

<http://www.sanjoseca.gov/GoogleProject>, and the Concept Layout materials posted at www.diridonsj.org/disc. See the attached list for the organizations that have already RSVP'd and those that we have not yet heard from. Please let me and Tara know if you can make it!

Also, please help us spread the word about the Diridon Station Area Community Meeting on Saturday, December 7, 10:00 AM at the Gardner Community Center. Here are the flyers in English, Spanish, and Vietnamese for forwarding, printing, and posting. The meeting will involve a short presentation, followed by time to browse the materials, chat with staff, ask questions, and provide feedback. We are offering light refreshments and live interpretation in Spanish and Vietnamese. As with previous community meetings, there will be a table with train-themed activities for kids – families welcome!

In addition to this event covering all of the major Diridon Station Area projects, the City is hosting a public meeting specific to the Google project (Downtown West Mixed-Use Plan) on Thursday, December 5, 5:30-7:30 at MLK Library, Room 225. The meeting will involve a presentation on the project description and review process, time to browse materials and chat with the project team, and small group discussions to ask questions and provide feedback. There will be light refreshments, live interpretation in Spanish, and a kids table. For more information on the project and review process, please visit: www.sanjoseca.gov/GoogleProject.

Thanks!

Lori
