Hi Jean-

I've been having a hard time keeping up with emails and so I'm just looping back to this question. The space you have identified is located adjacent to the proposed Los Gatos Creek Trail alignment through the former fire training site. This location will allow us to provide a gateway feature for the trail and also, hopefully, a moment for the trail, such as a play structure or other amenity that is consistent with the ecological focus of the Design Guidelines for this area.
