Hi Art,

I hadn't heard that the RVs in Mountain View were Google employee RVs. I'll bring this up with City staff. I like your idea.

Thanks!

Dev

Hi Dev,

I read an article about how Mayor Liccardo is pushing forward on the Google complex in San Jose. It occurred to me that Mt. View had or has a problem with Google employees or contractors parking RVs and mobile campers along its streets. Now I'm all for Google coming to San Jose but shouldn't they design in a Google parking lot that can hold at least 100 RVs? Otherwise we will have the same problem as Mt. View.

Cheers,
Art
