Hi Anton,

Now that I'm back from vacation, I plan on drafting the 2nd NOD for internal City review today. I think we can provide the NOD to your team on Friday to take a look before the City finalizes it for the 2nd City Council reading next week.

Hi Shannon and David,

Similar to the process for the first NOD, I wanted to check if it will be possible for the project applicant team to do a quick review of the second NOD at the end of this week prior to the second Council reading next week. Please let me know if that will be feasible and when we could expect a draft to be available.

Thanks,
Anton
